

Putteridge
High
School

Extended Learning

English

Years 9, 10 & 11

Putteridge
High
School

English

Year 9 - Autumn Term

Extended Learning Opportunities

Subject: English

Year: 9

Term: Autumn 1

Topic: An Inspector Calls

Learning Objectives

- To understand information and ideas in the film An Inspector Calls
- To explain and comment on how writers use cinematography to achieve effects
- To use relevant subject terminology to support written views about theatre productions
- To compare writers' ideas and perspectives across a film and a script
- To use appropriate references from a play script to reinforce points
- To be able to communicate clearly when writing a review to a film
- To organise information and ideas with thought when watching media versions of texts
- To use a range of vocabulary choices when writing a film review
- To organise information and ideas with thought when watching media versions of texts
- To use a range of sentence structures for effect when writing a film review
- To use accurate spelling and punctuation when writing a film review

Extended Learning Opportunities

- Watch a modern film version of the play you are studying
- Write a film review on the film you watched
- Read an alternative play written by Priestley and quiz it in your AR lesson
- Research the Edwardian era and learn 10 facts about the play you are studying
- Visit the theatre and watch a production
- Complete 20 minutes of reading a day

Putteridge
High
School

English Year 10

Extended Learning Opportunities

Subject: English

Year: 10

Term: Autumn

Topic: The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

Learning Objectives

- To understand implicit information and ideas in a novel
- To be able to select evidence from different texts
- To explain, comment on and analyse how writers use language and structure to achieve effects
- To compare ideas and perspectives in the text and in a film version
- To be able to support written ideas with appropriate textual references
- To organise information and ideas into a range of sentence types and paragraph lengths
- To use a range of vocabulary choices when responding to a question on Jekyll and Hyde
- To be able to spell common words accurately

Extended Learning Opportunities

- Research the author of the novel
- Go on GCSEpod and complete revision tasks
- Watch alternative versions of the novel and write a review
- Complete revisions mats based on the themes and characters within the novel

Putteridge
High
School

English Year 11

Extended Learning Opportunities

Subject: English

Year: 11

Term: Autumn

Topic: Romeo and Juliet

Learning Objectives

- To identify explicit and implicit information and ideas in a film version of Romeo and Juliet
- To compare a film version of the play to the written text
- To explain how the film director and the playwright achieve their effects
- To be able to use relevant subject terminology to support views
- To evaluate texts and support findings with appropriate references
- To organise written work into paragraphs
- To use a variety of different sentence types when writing about a play or a film version of a play.
- To use a range of vocabulary when writing about a play script or a theatre production
- To use accurate punctuation and accurate spelling in all written work

Extended Learning Opportunities

- Watch a modern film version of the play you are studying
- Write a film review on the film you watched
- Read an alternative version of the play you are studying and quiz it in your AR lesson
- Research the Elizabethan era and create a revision mat
- Visit the theatre and watch a production
- Complete 20 minutes of revision a day on GCSEpod