If you want to know how to start deciding what to aim for in your career or working life, try asking yourself these questions:

What are you good at?

What do you enjoy doing?

What subjects are you good at (at school)?

What are you good at outside of school?

What are your interests?

What skills do you already have?

What sort of a person are you?

Do you like interacting with people?

Where do you prefer to be (inside/outside)?

If you want more help answering these questions and deciding what you want to do please see our careers adviser.
